class history . . .

The class of "48" became a class in September of 1944. When initiation was finally completed we got underway. Our enrollment consisted of several Boone County boys and girls. Paul Waitt became the president. We had two parties that year.

The sophomore year became more interesting because we felt more at home with the upper classmen. That year we had a Christmas party and then the boys entertained with a hot-dog shin-dig. The senior class that year had a fall festival which we took part in. As our concessions we had a basketball game and fortune telling booth. Paul Waitt was re-elected president.

The junior year found us busy as bees. Again Paul Waitt became president. To add to all the activities we sold pop and popcorn at the ballgames, sponsored many dances, held a box supper in the gym, appointed Phyllis Landis and Max Jones to work as annual staff members, took part in the fall festival, and presented a play, "Ever Since Eve". Another big event was the decorating of the gym for the Junior and Senior Prom, held May 2, 1947.

When September the 1st 1947 rolled around, we were seniors. After finishing the business of electing officers and initiating the freshmen, we started work on the yearbook. The play, "We Shook the Family Tree." was presented December 9, 1947 under the direction of Miss Padgett. The pictures were taken early so we could have them for Christmas.

All year we had been talking about the trip to New York, Washington D. C., Atlantic City, or where ever else we could think of. It was finally decided our trip would be May 1 to 6 and to Washington D. C.

In our regular class meetings we chose our invitations, name cards, and colors of royal blue and yellow, to match these colors we chose royal blue robes and yellow daffodils. Our class motto is "The Door to Success is Labeled Push". The Baccalaureate was held May the 9th and the Commencement was May the 10th.

Summarizing the above facts we had four very memorable years in high school.

calendar . . .

August

Friday 29—Back to school and registration! It is such a lovely day, too. Guess we all stay home for Labor Day, Monday. We met our new Principal and Coach, Mr. Larry Hobbs.

September

Tuesday 2—The Labor Day vacation evidently did everyone some good because they all came back with happy smiles on their faces (especially the Freshmen whenever they caught sight of a Senior coming their way!). First class meetings were held. Three of the four presidents were re-elected. It seemed as though someone was expecting Paul Waitt to die quite suddenly as he was elected for the fourth term. Was it because President Roosevelt died in his fourth term? Initiation date has been set for Wednesday the tenth. We were to congratulate our new yell leaders who were Roberta Wallace, Mary Helen Fisher, and John Earl McDonald.

Wednesday 3—The Sheridan Professional Football players won a victory over Belmont with the score of 13 to 6.

Thursday 4—Hot dog! Everyone is welcoming the State Fair vacation which started today.

Friday 5—Sunshine Society had a meeting today and so did the "S" Club. The yell leaders had a very successful pep session the eighth period. Sheridan lost to Frankfort 34 to 12.

Monday 8—Two Freshmen boys stood outside the Principal's office wondering whether to go inside or go outside and take the Seniors' "medicine"!

Tuesday 9—The initiation committee met at Mary J. English's house to see what punishment could be inflicted upon the Freshmen tomorrow.

Wednesday 10—This was the big day for the Freshmen and they seemed quite excited about the whole affair. We wonder why! Miss Padgett and Miss Lowe were picked as the prettiest girls in the school by two of the victims, Phillip and Robert Hunt. Another Independent Football game tonight. Sheridan 6; Warren's Market 0.

Thursday 11—Miss Colby was absent today because of illness.

Friday 12—Pep Session. Good spirits on both sides, everyone agreed. Isn't it wonderful? Sheridan beat Kirklin 26 to 0.

Monday 15—The Annual Staff was announced with Phyllis Landis as Editor in Chief.

Tuesday 16—Governor Ralph Gates will be the honored guest at the Lions' and Rotary Club banquet tonight. The Home Economic girls will serve the dinner in the gym.

Wednesday 17—Wonder what Bill Kettrey and Mr. Eudaley were trying to blow up yesterday? At least the fire truck came to see.

Thursday 18—The first annual staff meeting was held today. Phyllis Hiatt and Tommy Pickett were chosen Junior representatives to sit in as staff members. The first grade was happy to welcome Po Lyon as their substitute teacher and it seems Po liked their sand pile? We also had our first fire drill for the year. Nope! Bill and Mr. Eudaley did not burn the schoolhouse down but just give them time!

Friday 19—At pep session Mr. Stout inspired us by one of his little talks. The game tonight is our first football game at home this season. Bownsburg was beaten by Sheridan 30 to 0.

Monday 22—We think the weather man forgot this is September and not December!!!

Tuesday 23—It seems as though Jim Ross either had his mind on Lebanon or forgot that Government is for seniors only because he walked in Mrs. Cline's government class.

Wednesday 24—The Sheridan Merchants played another victorious game tonight with the final score of 9 to 3. The Pepsi Cola Team was their opponent.

Thursday 25—Anyone wanting to learn how to drive should ask Maxine Goodknight and Pat Haughey. At least they keep between the telephone poles!

Friday 26—The Seventh and Eighth grade had a football game the seventh and eighth period. Our pep session was held outdoors. Sheridan beat Jackson Central 33 to 0.

Monday 29—This was quite a busy day with an annual staff meeting the fourth period and the Sunshine and Boys' Council meeting the third.

Tuesday 30—Wonder what made Joe Edward Stephenson fall off the stage in choir today. Has anyone seen Mary Walker's long purse? At least that is what she calls it. Everyone got to hear the world series.

October 1—It seems as though everyone in chemistry class was worried over a test Mr. Hobson gave them. Radios were all tuned in again to the world series.

Thursday 2—Mrs. Cline gave a government test today. Poor seniors!

Friday 3—Pep session. We traveled to Crawfordsville and won 14 to 7.

Monday 6—The faculty and students regret the resignation of Miss Lowe. Mrs. Puzey is her substitute until a permanent teacher is located.

Wednesday 8—Any girl in high school who wished to become a member of the Sunshine Society was initiated at the Methodist Church. Mr. Kenneth Biddle was the speaker at the Boys' Council Meeting.

Thursday 9—The school library is getting its badly needed cleaning today.

Friday 10—No pep session. Beat Kirklin 12 to 0.

Monday 13—Does anyone know what color Marion Moore's car is supposed to be? It looks like tomato red to me!

Tuesday 14—The Office Practice class is trying to get started on the school paper.

Wednesday 15—Wonder why Miss Padgett's face turned red in the third period literature class today?

Thursday 16—Group pictures were taken by Ayres photographers today. The camera was in good condition when they came but not when they left.

Friday 17—The rest of the group pictures were taken this afternoon. A big snake dance up through town climaxed the football season. In a down pour of rain the Shamrocks beat us 6 to 0.

Tuesday 21—Tryouts for the Senior class play were held the third and fourth periods. All Seniors were present. The school was presented with a very valuable gift today, a live goat.

Wednesday 22—The school paper was put on sale at noon. Mrs. Cline's grammar class was saved from a test today because five students were absent. Teachers Institute is tomorrow and Friday.

Wednesday 29—All the kids are wondering why the school is so quiet today. That's easy, all the boys have gone to the International Harvester Exhibition in Chicago. It is rumored that Bill Kinkead went Halloweening and fell in knee deep.

calendar . . .

Friday 31—The first six grades entertained the high school by masking and parading around the study hall.

November

Tuesday 4—The Jr. High had a basketball game with Noblesville. Noblesville won 23 to 18.

Thursday 6—The Juniors selected their class jewelry and the Seniors picked out their invitations and name cards this morning. The Sunshine girls had a short meeting to plan a chili dinner.

Tuesday 11—How was the hunting yesterday, Mr. McClung? Wonder what caused Pat Haughey's troubled look today?

Thursday 13—The Seniors went into a huddle over where they would like to go on their trip.

Friday 14—Had our first basketball game tonight with Noblesville. The yell leaders had on their new outfits and really looked swell. By the way we lost the game one point, 26 to 25.

Monday 17—Junior high had a basketball game tonight. They won this one from Arcadia. Wiggs, where did you get that lipstick and what kind is it?

Tuesday 18—"SHS HIGHLIGHTS" is the name chosen for the school paper. Carolyn Snyder won a subscription for submitting the name.

Thursday 20—Senior class meeting the first period. No government again. Say Max isn't it a little cold for a crew cut now?

Friday 21—Played Windfall tonight. What a game!

Tuesday 25—Everyone had sad faces today. Could it possibly be because the grade cards were issued?

Wednesday 26—Played Fishers tonight and won both games. Say Arlayne that is a sparkling diamond on your third finger, left hand.

December

Monday 1—Dr. Reck and Dr. Newby administered the patch test today to the first grade. The nurses helping were, Pat Haughey and June Bowen.

Wednesday 3—The Walnut Wolves gave us a run for our money when they almost won the game tonight. The final outcome was 37 to 35.

Thursday 4—Well, the Office Practice Class doesn't have to worry about being left out in the world all alone. Mr. McClung has adopted all the girls as his children.

Friday 5—Seniors gave a preview of their class play today. The Jackson Central Eagles were flogged 54 to 24 when the Blackhawks got a hold of them.

Monday 8—Mr. Stout, what were you doing on Santa's lap Saturday? Don't you know he can't help you get your pay?

Tuesday 9—Mr. Hobbs was absent today. Yes, so I hear he was really sick. Seniors, in the play, got cut this afternoon. Georgiarne couldn't leave though because she couldn't find her coat.

Wednesday 10—The Senior play was wonderful. Oh, yes, the name of it was, "WE SHOOK THE FAMILY TREE". We played Kirklin, although we'd rather not talk about it. They won 42 to 28. Our Second team won their game.

Friday 12—The X-Ray Mobile Unit was here today. Played Tipton Blue Devils and beat them 47 to 35.

Wednesday 14—Taking revenge on the football game we lost to them, we beat Westfield 38 to 35.

Thursday 18—Did someone say that Pat Haughey had a slumber party last night???

Friday 19—Due to a shortage of space the students didn't see the Lebanon game. Our spirit was there, but not good enough. Lebanon won 41 to 34.

Wednesday 24—Mr. Hobbs, don't you know that teachers aren't supposed to leave the building like the students are? This is our last day of school until

January

Monday 5—Everyone looks rested today, especially the teachers.

Wednesday 7—Played Greentown and they won 45 to 38.

Friday 9—The Carmel aggregation gathered in the gymnasium to be beaten 45 to 28.

Monday 12—Mr. McClung had the prettiest calendar that I have seen this year. Wonder where he got it??

Tuesday 13—The Seniors had a nice quiet class meeting to discuss their trip.

Thursday 15—Tonight is the big night. It is the first night of the County Tourney.

Friday 16—Everyone face the north please. Well, well, Mr. Hobbs has a smile even though we lost the game to Westfield last night. Say, Wiggs, someday Mrs. Cline will kick you and Caroline out of Grammar class if you don't watch out.

Monday 19—To our sorrow, we found out that Westfield was the victor in the County Tourney. Wonder how Bud Barricks could possibly have deserved that paddling he got today, eh, Bud?

Friday 23—The Blackhawks trampled the Tipton County champs (Sharpville) 39 to 34.

Monday 26—Seniors had their problem of the trip settled by Mr. Hobbs. Washington hold your hats for here we come.

Tuesday 27—Seniors got measured for caps and gowns.

Friday 30—The unveiling of the Sheridan red birds was made at the Tipton game. They must hold some lucky charm because we beat them again, 36 to 33. The school paper went on sale at noon.

February

Wednesday 4—The G. A. A. girls had their party tonight. The Sophomores lost to the Juniors in kickball at noon.

Friday 6—Played our first overtime "in many moons" The three extra minutes proved enough to beat Flora 39 to 37.

Monday 9—Wonder why several of the music students had smiles on their faces all day. Could it possibly be because Sheridan kids won a lot of honors Saturday at the District music contest in Muncie?

Wednesday 11—The Freshmen beat the Seniors in Kickball at noon. The playoff will be the eighteenth between the Freshmen and Juniors.

Monday 16—Played Brownsburg Saturday night and won 33 to 32. We wonder if Mr. McClung realized it was a close game.

In September of '45 we entered as the ordinary "green freshies." We had some difficulty getting started but with a little aid from the Seniors we managed to get along. During this year we had two parties. One was a "come as you are party" and the other a "weiner roast and hayride."

Our Sophomore year was rather uneventful. Again we had two class parties; both preceded by a hayride.

Finally the first of the two years for which we had been looking forward to with great anticipation has come. We are Juniors!!!! We are boosting our class treasury, so we can pay the Seniors for the pop corn popper and give them a prom, by selling pop and popcorn at the ballgames.

We received our jewelry February 10.

The other plans for this year include the class play and the Junior and Senior prom.

sophomore class . . .

As Freshmen we didn't have many activities. Our "initiation" as the seniors called it was peppered with excitement and enjoyed by the entire school. We sponsored a hay-ride, with tomatoes furnished, and two skating parties, in addition to our class party that year.

This year we have had a class party and a skating party. We plan to have another class party sometime during the second semester and it has been decided that the girls will give this party for the boys.

It seems that the boys in our class rule supreme. Our officers during both our years in High School have been boys. "Top man" is Harold DeNoon; Don McCarty, Richard Hiatt, and Jack Bishop are assistants.

The first of the school year announced something that all the Freshmen had been waiting for—initiation. We all survived through the persimmons, red peppers, chili sauce and numerous other articles. We really had a lot of fun even if some couldn't sit down for a few days.

We had our first class party around Christmas and we are planning another later.

It seems that it is really a man's world as all of our class officers are boys, with Bob Adair in the lead as president.

Several are going to compete in the Latin contest, as practically the whole class is taking Latin this year.

It still is hard to believe that we actually beat the seniors in the kickball tourney. We're practicing for the Juniors so we can beat them also.

prophecy . . .

Last night I had a dream. Would you like to hear it? All right.

I dreamed that I had departed from this dear old earth and was on my way to heaven. I had almost reached the pearly gates when I met Bob Ferguson and thought perhaps I had taken the wrong road, but he assured me I hadn't. Being an old school chum of the gabby nature, I asked him all about himself. He said that he had been elected Senator in 1970 and would have been President in 1972 but some crack-pot took a shot at him while he was debating on the issue "Should there or should there not be a woman president?" Fergie gave me a few pointers on how to get through the gates and also mentioned that St. Peter was no longer around.

I proceeded on my way and soon reached the pearly gates. Much to my surprise St. Peter had been replaced by St. Max, the former Mayor Max Wiggs of Terhune. Because he was an old friend he let me by without much questioning.

A group of men were sitting on a cloud and when I recognized some former classmates, I floated over to them and chatted for a while. Paul Waitt was in the group and I asked him all about himself. He said that the world had beaten a path to his door. It seems that while still in high school he had made a better mousetrap.

Paul Hammer had also been successful. He had written a dictionary. I asked him his reasons for writing it and he replied, "I ain't gonna go around usin' words which ain't in the dictionary."

When I looked up I saw Keith Duchemin. Always interested in basketball, he had become a waterboy for the Kautsky's because he was unable to compete in the starting lineup. An unfortunate accident happened one night. A water bucket fell on his head. We now find Duchemin with a larger lump on his shoulders.

Another old chum there was Max Jones. He had a funny contraption with him. He explained that it was an electric dock cutter. "Jone's Jibble Jiffy Dock Cutter. It hoes more dock."

I then floated into June Bowen, Maxine Goodknight, Joan Haughey and Mary Walker. Since I was interested in the welfare of others I asked them how they had gotten along on earth. June replied that she had been a nurse for a short time but later settled down on a "Fox" farm.

Maxine had finally attained the position of office secretary at Kirklin. She studied for many years under Miss Colby.

I didn't have to ask about Joan's welfare. She was well known all over the world for Haughey Gas — talking gas for bashful people.

Mary was the head of all 4-H clubs in America. Her headquarters were in Texas. With that I floated on and as I turned around a corner, I heard some gabbing. I drew closer and heard the phrase "Ugha, ugha, boo, ugha boo, boo, ugha." A light flashed in my brain and fond memories of school days and our D. O. N. club came back to me. Standing there were the club members: Sarah Jane Taylor, Phyllis Landis, Caroline Spidel, Patty Arthur, Helen Duchemin, Mary Jane English, and Portia Lyon. I was very interested in them and asked them many questions.

Sarah Jane had been a kindergarten teacher and had introduced a new method of teaching; "Each grade teacher had to teach her pupils a proposition a year; therefore when they became Sophomores and took geometry it was not so hard."

I asked Phyllis about Don Gary as I didn't expect to see him and she said he had been very successful as a used car dealer. He bought, remade and sold used cars. Phyllis had been his secretary.

Caroline had been in heaven for quite a long time. She was winner of the 1948 speedway races of Indianapolis. Her mechanic was very efficient at fixing up things—Don Barker by name.

Pat had made a name for herself as a Powers model of "Chubbett" clothes.

I hardly recognized Helen. She was drawing pictures for a large magazine, The Esxort or "Esquire" or something like that, under the name of Helene deChemin.

Janie was vice-president of a large manufacturing company. "Kincaid Kiddy Kar Korporation." We guarantee all our Kiddy Kars not for twins, not for triplets, but for quintuplets.

Portia had taken over Tony's restaurant and her speciality was school lunches that were guaranteed to give you a stomach-ache.

The D. O. N. Club as a whole had published a song, "The D. O. N. Torch Song". It is to the tune of "Put the Blame on Mame Boys" and has ten verses. It was a big hit. Have you heard it?

I floated on and hadn't gone but a little way, when I stumbled over someone. I looked down and saw Roe Newby. He had carried on a habit from school and was still sleeping.

He had been successful as a model for the "Baa, Baa, no need to count sheep for sleep" Mattress Company. Jim Teter was also standing there. He said that he had driven a taxi while on earth, "The Black and Blue Taxi". I didn't ask how it got its name. I asked them about their old friends Jack Inman and Harley Hobson and they replied that Jack was kept rather busy here in heaven. He drove a bus for hurried transfers. Harley Hobson was writing pocketbook stories and had taken over Thorne Smith's fame.

They told me not to miss the Golden Harpist during my stop in heaven and as I wasn't sure how long I would be here I hurried over. The music was lovely and I felt that I must meet the harpist. I stepped behind a cloud and much to my surprise I met my former classmates, Annabelle Millikan, Betty Lou Campbell, Betty Jean Presley, and Arlayne Hawkins. I asked Annie about herself and she said that she had been main entertainer at the Indiana Roof. She was a singer, dancer, impersonator, puppeteer, magician, aerolist, and official smoocher at 12:00 on New Years Eve.

Betty Lou had been a very successful architect until one day a beam fell on her head and Betty Lou retired quietly to the upper store.

Betty Jean had been a dress designer but she got so sewed up in her work that she had to take a vacation. She liked it so, up here, that she just stayed.

Arlayne had become a successful model. She posed for "Ponds Face Cream" advertisement, "She's young, She's lovely, She's engaged."

My stomach told me it was time to eat so I asked them to recommend a place. They directed me to ALEXANDER'S HASH HOUSE. I reached the House and found that Barbara Alexander was the owner. Rosemary Emery, Lucille Wallace, Barbara Bailey, and June Illges were waitresses. I talked with each of them.

Barbara Bailey said that while on earth she had operated a Lonely Hearts Club. She had been very successful and had joined together many lonely hearts.

June Illges had done quite well as a dancer in Hunt's (Charles Hunt) Follies of 1958.

Lucille Wallace, on her Senior trip to Washington, had enjoyed herself so much that she decided to settle down at Fort Mead.

Rosemary Emery was famous as the author of the book, MARRIAGE—PHOOEY!!

While I was eating Sarah Lou Lovell and Elizabeth Rood came over. They seemed very much at home in heaven and apparently had been there for quite awhile. They told me they had come shortly after they had gotten their first job. Sarah had taken over Mr. Pleasant's position as driving instructor in Sheridan. Elizabeth has been her assistant.

When I started to leave the Hash House I ran into a group of boys so I stopped to talk again. In the group were, Marion Moore, Lloyd Walker, Bob Templemen, Bill Kettrey, James Hillock, and Edward Bragg.

Marion said that he returned to S. H. S. a few years after graduation and had stepped into Miss Kohlmeyer's shoes as Home Economics teacher.

Lloyd had bought a farm in South America and raised "Chiquita". Bananas.

Bob Templeman, in 1958, finished building a lovely house on state road 38.

Bill Kettrey, a well to do blacksmith, tried all his earthly life to keep blow torches from blowing up.

James Hillock was known in the Ringling Brothers Circus as "Lucky Jim" the driving daredevil of the century.

Edward Bragg was President of the Farm Bureau at one time.

I continued on and soon came to some girls who were in deep study. I looked over their shoulders only to find Mary Lois Sutton, Florence Wills, Maefern Renn, Lida Jane Abner and Ruth Louks. Out of the conversation I gathered the following facts:

Mary Lois had helped thousands of children to get a start in life; she was a first grade teacher.

Florence had stayed on for many years as assistant commercial teacher.

After graduation Maefern went to Nebraska for her health—heart trouble.

Lida Jane became quite a famous poet. At school we didn't realize her genius.

Ruth Louks had also become a teacher. She was the agriculture teacher for the G. I's.

The bus stop was my last destination. On my way I met Howard Foust, Joe Bilby, and Leroy Overdorf. Buddy had been spotter for the University of Michigan's football team.

Joe Bilby was a judge at the National 4-H confederation and was also in charge of the swine barn.

Leroy hadn't done much in life. He just couldn't seem to get started.

With that I got on the bus and slowly rode away. Suddenly I found myself sitting on the floor. I guess the dream was too much for me.

music department . . .

The musical organizations of the high school consist of the senior band, the orchestra and the glee club. During the past 4 years the groups have kept busy providing entertainment for many and varied functions in our own community and in surrounding towns. All three organizations have travelled to Noblesville each spring to take part in the annual county festival in which every band, orchestra, and chorus in Hamilton county unite to form three large groups. After a morning and afternoon rehearsal the groups present a program for the public in the evening. The numbers are directed by the 7 music teachers. The only senior to take an active part in the solo contest has been Florence Wills, cornetist, who has entered 3 years out of 4. Several other younger contestants have entered and this year 5 of them will go to Terre Haute where they will compete with other first division district winners from all over the state. Miss M. Reddick has been the music director for the past 4 years.

BAND

Band, which claims to be the noisiest organization in Sheridan High School, meets 3 periods each week in preparation for their public appearances. Probably foremost in their schedule are the football and basketball games where the Sheridan fans not only enjoy their uniformed appearance, but also their rhythmic march music. For 3 seasons the band marched under the capable direction of Virginia Reck, drum majorette and her corps of twirlers. This year the fans have been entertained by four new twirlers. Hildreth Cox, Veda Owen, Joan Barricks, and Barbara Stafford.

During the span of high school years, the band has played at the annual Christmas and spring programs and in 1947 exchanged programs with the students of Walnut Grove. This year in 1948 the band attended a clinic under the direction of Mr. Doty, director of the Indiana University bands, where they underwent some long hard rehearsals and received many good pointers. Other graduating senior band members not yet mentioned are: Mary Lois Sutton, cornet; Phyllis Landis and Barbara Bailey, snare drums; Portia Lyon, clarinet.

ORCHESTRA

In 1948 the orchestra blossomed forth and appeared at the PTA Christmas program. The group has been growing in number and ability during the past four years and is doing some nice work this year. Although they now resemble an ensemble rather than an orchestra, there is much hope for the future as Mrs. Zimmerman is coaching many young string players for the coming years.

CHORUS

The glee club has been a group greatly in demand in the community. Besides the school programs in which they have not only sung but have helped with the decorations, this group has sung for Rotary, Lions Club, all the churches, and several of the women's clubs. They have participated in the county festivals and the Walnut Grove exchange program. They're at their best in semi-classical love songs.

the syllabus . . .

The Syllabus first came into being about the year 1920. Yearly publication lasted until it was dropped after the 1928 edition.

Finally in 1932 another book was edited.

Again in 1945 the Syllabus made another appearance at Sheridan High School. From hence-forward there has been a year book every year.

Something new was added a year ago when Junior Class representatives were allowed to sit in on the meeting. This year Phyllis Ann Hiatt and Thomas Pickett are the Junior Class staff members.

The Adams Township Parents and Teachers Association was organized during the first part of the 1946-1947 school year. The purpose of the organization is to bring about closer co-operation between the home and the school for the benefit of the child and to promote a better understanding of the common problems of parents and teachers.

The new organization had a very successful year, from the standpoint of membership and projects undertaken, under the very capable leadership of Mrs. Myron McCullough and her staff of officers.

The present membership is about two hun-

The Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society of Sheridan High School, a scholastic society, was organized in 1946. It is composed of not more than 15% of the eleventh grade and not more than 25% of the twelfth grade. These students are elected the first week of February.

The purpose of the society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to improve the general welfare of the pupils of Sheridan High School.

A person's eligibility is based on his previous semester grades (nothing below a B average).

This year the organization has undertaken such projects as the circulating of the petition necessary for the building of additional rooms to our school building, the conducting of a study group, and the sponsoring of Room Mothers who have been helpful to the teachers. Portia took first. As no finals were held in Bloomington then, due to the tire situation, sectional results were used for state comparison. Out of 178 contestants, representing most of the larger high schools of the state, Portia placed sixth. Where would she have placed had she really worked?

senior play . . .

The night of December 9, 1947 found the gym loaded with a throng of expectant people waiting for the eight bells curtain. As scheduled the curtain rose promptly beholding a moderate sized living room of an average American family.

On the stage pounced four teenagers, Hildagarde, Bob, Sally, and Jimmy. After five minutes you knew that they were not average. Hildagarde (Betty Campbell) had just given a debate speech about drunken fathers which later led the whole town to believe it was her own father she was referring to. Sally, her younger sister; (June Bowen) was always at Hildagarde's side no matter what. Like any other family of brothers and sisters Bob (Paul Hammer) and Jimmy (James Hillock) were always teasing Hildagarde.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolson, the children's parents, (Marion Moore and Georgianne Talbert) spread their protecting wings over their brood until the wing was almost clipped when Bob tackled Mr. Shermer (Max Jones), the president of the bank where Mr. Dolson worked.

The first production of the class of '48" was "Ever Since Eve."

It was the initial time for our professional actors and actresses to have a work out. Play practice held our attention almost as much as the night of Nov. 6, 1946. The play centered around Johnny Clover (Paul Waitt) a prominent high school senior and also editor of the "Penguin", the school paper. Spud Erwin (Robert Ferguson) his best pal and chum saw him through the thick and thin of measles.

Phyllis Landis and Donald Gary portrayed the school teacher and principal. The love match between the two still continues. Susan Blake (Sarah Jane Taylor) and Betsy Erwin (Portia Lyon) got the paper all

Mr. Shermer's son Freddie (Paul Waitt) was the only fellow Hildagarde could go to the prom with. Besides Freddie being an A student his mother (Helen Duchemin) made him wear knickers. In order to make Ellie May (Macfern Renn) and Jill (Sarah Jane Taylor) eat their words, Freddie broke into his own home and stole his graduation present, traded it in on a pair of long pants, then distributed his mother's old love letters all over town, in the same manner that Page (Elizabeth Ann Rood) had done with Mr. and Mrs. Dolson's letters.

In addition to this Jimmy's electric wormer was put on outside in full force to scare everyone away. Bob's bass that he caught was left swimming in the bath tub and Hildegrade plastered her face with Beauty Clay and frightened Mrs. Shermer.

A happy ending resulted in Freddie's confession of house breaking and his wearing long pants to the prom.

Our play was very capably directed by Miss Padgett.

fouled up when they decided a woman's hand would help the matter. The girls bought a slot machine for which "Cappy" (Joe Bilby) had to arrest them. Lucybelle (Helen Duchemin) the little gal from the south was continually breaking up any and all love matches she could. To help matters she had a string of football players on her line (Keith Duchemin, Paul Hammer, Max Wiggs, Marion Moore, and Max Jones.) In saving the day Mr. and Mrs. Clover (William Kettrey and Georgianne Talbert) were invaluable.

With the assistance of all the members of the class and our director, Miss Duffy, the play was a huge success.

the memory book of '48

Let us turn back the years as pages,
Twelve pages back we will see
A group of tiny first-graders,
Their faces full of glee.

Within the next twelve pages,
Some of the faces disappear,
But they are replaced with new ones,
Who become to us just as dear.

On the seventh page, the same group,
Though changed somewhat through the years,
Entered Junior High School
With only the slightest of fears.

We come to page nine in our Memory Book;
As Freshmen we thought ourselves smart;
So we entered Sheridan High School
There to receive our life's start.

Page ten and we are Sophomores,
We sponsored fortune tellers as a gag.
The boys gave a party in the gym,
About which they still like to brag.

Page eleven we appear as Juniors,
As a class we put on our first play.
Already we were beginning to think
Underclassmen should stay out of our way.

The twelfth page reveals the Seniors;
There was plenty of work to be done—
An annual to publish, and a play to produce—
But doing it we had lots of fun.

The last page of our book remains empty,
Our lives will determine its filling,
May whatever comes to us in future years
Find us ready, waiting, and willing.

"I tell you I won't have this room. I'm not going to pay my good money for a closet with a measly little folding bed in it. If you think that just because I'm from the country."

"Get in, lady, get in," the boy cut in wearily. "This isn't your room this is the elevator."

Helen Barrick: "The bank has returned this check of our fathers."

Joanne Barrick: "Isn't that fine? What can we buy with it next?"

Miss Padgett: "Have you read 'Freckles'?"

Red Mendenhall: "No, thank goodness mine are brown."

Advance Typing Students: "Mr. McClung, I wish we could get some of those typing erasers."

Mr. McClung: "I saw a lady have one the other day."

Students: "Why didn't you ask her where she got it?"

Mr. McClung: "I couldn't catch her."

Mr. Hobson: "Keith, why don't you ever get to class on time?"

Keith Duchemin: "The bell rings before I get here."

Joe Bilby: "Say, how did you get that red on your lips?"

Max Jones: "That's my ticket for parking too long in one place."

Mrs. Cline: "Correct this sentence 'Girls is naturally better looking than boys'."

Bob Templeman: "Girls are more artificial looking than boys."

Wimpy Rood: "He's so romantic every time he speaks to me he says, 'Fair Lady'."

Sarah Lovell: "There's nothing romantic in that. It's just a habit. He used to be a conductor."

Florence Wills: "How do they get the water in the watermelon?"

Mary Lois Sutton: "They plant the seeds in the spring, I guess."

Georgianne Talbert: (Sighing) "Yes, she was hanged in China."

Patricia Arthur: "Shanghai?"

Georgianne: "Not very."

First Angel: "And how did you get here?"

Second Angel: "Flu."

Young Alec was watching a house painter at work. Presently he asked:

"How many coats of paint do you give a door?"

"Two, my boy," was the reply

"Then if you give it three coats," said the lad brightly, "it would be an overcoat."

"No, my lad" retorted the painter grimly, "it would be a waste coat."

Old-fashioned: "What do you mean by the three R's?"

New-fashioned: "The three R's run all through life. At 25 it's romance, at 45 it's rent, and at 65 it's rheumatism."

Deacon Jones was very ill. His brethren were keenly interested in his condition. Toward the end, bulletins were posted on the black-board outside of the house.

- 1 a. m. Deacon Jones very much worse.
- 2 a. m. Deacon Jones sinking fast.
- 3 a. m. Deacon Jones very low.
- 4 a. m. Deacon Jones dead. Gone to Heaven. The little boy read the bulletin and added this:
- 5 a. m. Great excitement in Heaven. Deacon Jones not yet arrived.

A guide showing a lady through the zoo, took her to the kangaroo's cage.

"Here, madam," he said, "we have a native of Australia, and to think my sister married one."

But Junie, don't you trust me? Yes, Ken, I'll gladly go to the ends of the earth with you, but I absolutely refuse to park on the way!

Wendell D.: "How about a little kiss?"

Mary Little: "No, I have scruples."

Wendell D.: "Well, that's all right, I've been vaccinated."

Helen Oberleas: "Believe me, if my mother scolds me for coming home late I'm going to tell her a thing or two."

Phyllis Hiatt: "Don't do it: Tell her one thing and stick to it."

Indicative Mood

When we read the current tales
About psychos, drunks and jails
And we thoughtfully discuss them with our friends,
We agree with inward shame
That Society's to blame
And the cause of Countless numbers of bad ends

So if ever I should stray
From the straight and narrow way
And should wind up in the clink
It is comforting to think
That Society's responsible for me
